the story of a great yorkshire wool trade family from 1854 to the first world war and the russian revolution

this is a family saga set in west yorkshire spanning 3 generations of the crowther family against the backdrop of vicissitudes in the cloth trade and important national events the patriarch simeon crowther works his way up to establish the family business which prospers while others older and more established decline his two sons zebediah joshua very different in character temperament are rivals in the business they marry very differently joshua s wife is annie a former mill girl zebediah marries clara devious and ambitious for superior social status over the more established local families the untimely death of his brother the latter in an accident caused by his brother's negligence and his father's fatal heart attack enable zebediah to take control of the business however his son Lancelot is not interested in the family business unlike his nephew Simeon the book is divided into 3 time periods 1854 1867 1883 1894 1908 1921 which enables the different generations to play their parts in the future of the family firm
